

LOOKING TO ESCAPE THE CITY?

The California Delta is a hop, skip, and jump away from the major airports of the San Francisco Bay and Sacramento/Stockton areas. Your California trip is not complete without a visit to the Delta with its fishing, boating, dining, camping, wine tasting, and sightseeing —there isn't a place filled with more character, culture, and charm!

EXPLORE

Things to Do in the Delta

CELEBRATE

At a Delta Event

DISCOVER

Lodging In the Delta

JOIN

The Delta Mailing List

WHAT TO DO

It's time to explore the California Delta!

Summer in the California Delta means exploring the vast waterways by jet ski or kayak, floating leisurely on inner tubes, or catching a sunrise or sunset from the deck of a houseboat. Catch some Delta river crawdads, or better yet, hit up the summer festivals and events and enjoy some live and lively music.

The long winter months rewards fishermen with some of the best bass fishing around. This is also an ideal time to take a kayak cruise along the meandering waterways. Throughout the year, enjoy the treasures of the California Delta and find back-road adventures framed by beautiful 360-degree views.

With over 1,000 miles of navigable waterways the California Delta is a watersports paradise. It's the perfect place to explore nature and the Delta's unique landscapes, gain some serenity, and have a little fun. Come grab some California lifestyle.

BIRD WATCHING

Love our feathered friends? The California Delta is home to hundreds of different species making it an amazing place for birdwatching.

CYCLING

Cycling may be the next best thing to flying, and is a great way to get in touch with the nature that surrounds you. Set off on an adventure and explore the Delta on a bicycle...maybe even one built for two.

CAMPING & RV PARKS

The Delta region is a great place to bring the family for a camping trip, with many places to pitch a tent and spend the weekend on the water, fishing and relaxing!

FARM STANDS

The Delta region is brimming with great produce and food that you can pick up at farmers' markets or stop in at one of the family-friendly farms to pick your own!

Just a short drive from the Bay Area and Sacramento, the Delta region offers a wide range of fun festivities that appeal to the whole family! Explore the Delta's fine food festivals or rock out to the blues each year under the warm Delta sun. Celebrate the wildlife that call the Delta home and delve into Delta history and culture.

NATURE AND RECREATION EVENTS

With over 325,000 acres dedicated to farmland and the rivers and waterways brimming with fish and wildlife, the California Delta region knows how to enjoy the great outdoors.

FOOD AND DRINK EVENTS

Great food-centered festivals are held in the Delta region every year. Pears, asparagus, zinfandel, chocolate, crawdads, pumpkins – the Delta has something for everyone!

KID AND FAMILY FRIENDLY EVENTS

Full of recreational and educational opportunities, explore the Delta with the family throughout the year!

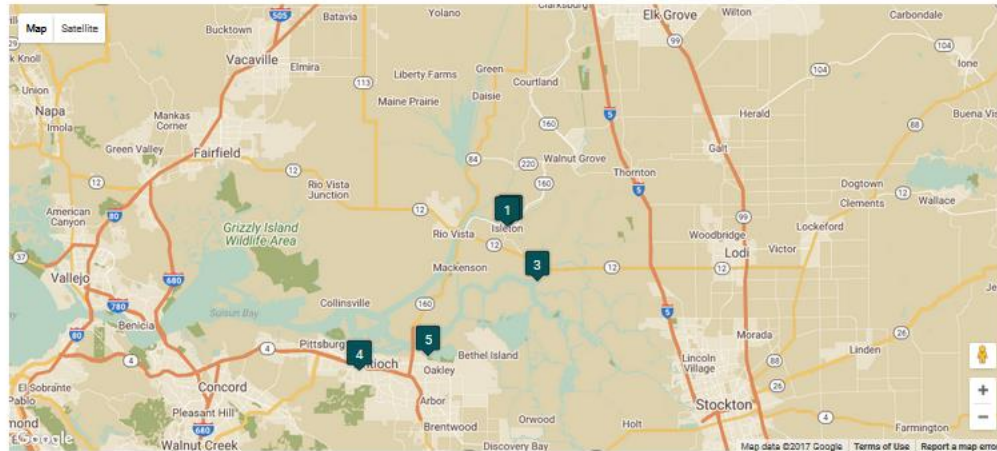

MUSIC, ART, AND CULTURAL EVENTS

When you think Delta Blues it may not be California that leaps to mind, but the California Delta is actually home to a world-class blues festival every fall.

DELTA ORGANIZATIONS

The Delta is home to numerous organizations with the mission to showcase all that the Delta has to offer. Whether it be science trips, local businesses, recreation opportunities, or anything else...check out these organizations to learn more about the Delta!

1 Isleton Historical Society

P.O. Box 933, Isleton
isletonhistory.org

2 Isleton Chamber of Commerce

23 Main Street, Isleton, 916.777.4800
isletonchamber.com

3 California Delta Chambers and Visitors Bureau

169 Brannan Island Road, Isleton, 916.777.4041
californiadelta.org

4 Delta Science Center

P.O. Box 798, Oakley, 925.289.5711
deltasciencecenter.org

5 Big Break Visitor Center at the Delta

69 Big Break Road, Oakley, 510.544.3050
ebparks.org/parks/big_break

• Features a walkable map of the Delta!